1 Easton Village Store

Easton has many food options. One of their most popular options is the Easton Village Store. Take a step back from the fast pace world and enjoy some comforting home cooked food. Using the freshest ingredients, everyone leaves with a happy stomach.

2 Produce Farms

Both Sport Hill Farm & Sherwood Farm have a beautiful selection of fresh, organic vegetables. Sherwood Farm has existed since the 1700s and boasts a play set, a pet T-Rex, and live bees built into the wall of the market... You've never seen anything like it!

3 Christmas Tree Farms

Easton offers many Christmas Tree Farms - one of the largest is Maple Row Christmas tree farm which is family owned. They offer 9 different trees for families to cut down themselves, hay rides and hot chocolate. Maple Row provides families with memories that will last a life time with this festive holiday tradition.

4 Easton Fireman's Carnival

Every August the Easton Fire Department hosts a carnival. This event is for anyone looking for some fun, rides, and games. Rides for all ages, great food and a bingo tent. This brings the town of Easton together as one community.

5 Community Center

The Easton Community Center offers a variety to all. Child care, preschool, camps, fitness centers, rock walls, facility rentals, event space and much more. There is something for everyone at Easton's Community Center.

6 Silverman's Farm

Visit Silverman's Farm store for a variety of treats such as coffee, cider, and fresh baked goods. Visitors can also spend their day at Silverman's animal farm or orchard.

7 Public School System

Easton's public school stands far above other school districts in Connecticut. This district offers nursery school, elementary school, middle school, and high school. All of these schools offer exceptional education.

8 Riding Trails

Easton has a vast amount of riding trails for those who enjoy riding horses. The scenic trails are breathtaking. Gold Rush Farms LLC is one of Easton's most popular, convenient trails for those who enjoy riding.

9 Aspetuck Land Trust

Founded in 1966, Aspetuck Land Trust is a non-profit organization whose mission is the preservation and conservation of open space, including farm and forest land, and the natural resources for the benefit and education of the public.

10 Memorial Day Events

Every Memorial day for the past 8 years, Easton hosts a Memorial Day Mile run and Memorial day parade. The net proceeds from the one mile race benefit Joel Barlow Post Prom Committee, Easton Community Center, and The Exchange Club Parenting Skills Center.
